Lorraine is the proud mother of one son. She loves to travel and play games with family and friends. She LOVES reggae music and oh yeah; did she say travel. She loves to live life and will try almost anything at least once. "You can't say you don't like it until you try it!" is one of her mottos and her other motto is "Don't worry about a thing, everything is going to be alright!" Yes, a quote from Bob Marley.
